

National, Regional, and Global Processes in the Humanities, and the Natural, Social and Educational Sciences: The Case of Economics

Informal Exploratory Workshop, May 8, 2023, 13:15–16:00

Sociology of Education & HERO,
Uppsala University
Tupprummet, 14:340, Blåsenhus

Johan Heilbron & Frédéric Lebaron

13:15–14:00 Johan Heilbron: What is Specific About the Internationalization of Economics?

14:00–14:45 Frédéric Lebaron: France and the Internationalization of Economics: Facts and Hypotheses

14:45–15:00 Break

15:00–16:00 Discussion

National, Regional, and Global Processes in the Humanities, and the Natural, Social and Educational Sciences

Informal Exploratory Workshop, May 11, 2023, 09:15–17:00

Department of History of Science and Ideas & HERO,
Uppsala University
Rausingrummet, 6-3025, English Park Campus

Jenny Beckman, Mikael Börjesson, Johan Heilbron, Kristoffer Kropp, Daniel Laqua, Ida Lidegran, Benjamin Martin, Sharon Rider, Sven Widmalm, Per Wisselgren & Hampus Östh Gustafsson

Aim:

-informally exchange of views about the current state of research about the inter-/nationalization in the Humanities, and the Natural, Social and Educational Sciences
- identify new topics, questions and approaches for future collaborative research workshops and projects about inter-/nationalization in science and scholarship

Indicative questions:

1. How do these processes of inter-/nationalization play out across the different scholarly domains? Similarities, differences?
2. How do different levels (national, regional and global) play out across various scholarly domains? Is regionalization becoming more predominant in recent decades?

One-day 'informal workshop':

09:15–09:30 Introduction

Johan Heilbron, Mikael Börjesson & Per Wisselgren

09:30–10:15 Natural Science

Sven Widmalm: Science and policy after WWII

Jenny Beckman: The Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences as an "international" organization c. 1970

10:15–10:45 Break

10:45–11:45 Social Sciences:

Per Wisselgren: UNESCO and the (Inter)Nationalization of Cold War Social Science

Johan Heilbron: Internationalizing social science: some research questions and hypotheses

Kristoffer Kropp: European social science seen through university position taking

12:00 Lunch

13:15–14:15: The Humanities

Hampus Östh Gustafsson: Crises intertwined: the coalescence of national and transnational discourses of the humanities in the postwar era

Daniel Laqua: Notions of 'students as future leaders' in the international realm

Benjamin Martin: UNESCO and the Notion of Culture

14:15–14:45 Educational Sciences

Mikael Börjesson & Ida Lidegran: Educational Sciences as a National Swedish Affair. A Short History

14:45–15:00 Summing up

Johan Heilbron & Sharon Rider

15:15–17:00 Daniel Laqua: On the Road to a Nuclear-Free Future? A Microhistory of Transnational Activism in mid-1990s Europe

17:15–18:45 AW at Williams Pub, Åsgränd 5c

19:00 Dinner at Il Forno, S:t Olofsgatan 8

National, Regional, and Global Processes in the Humanities, and the Medical, Educational, Social and Natural Sciences
Methods

Informal Exploratory Workshop, May 12, 10:15–16:00, 2023

Sociology of Education & HERO,
Uppsala University
Rausingrummet, 6-3025, English Park Campus

Felix Bengtsson, Philippa Brunner Heywood, André Bryntesson, Mikael Börjesson, Pablo Lillo Cea, Richardo Cevallos, Mette Ginnerskov-Dahlberg, Laura Giorio & Kristoffer Kropp

10:15–10:45 Kristoffer Kropp: Homology between field of social science and humanities - a sketched for a design

10:45–11:15 Richardo Cevallos: Sequence analysis: an alternative for approaching the temporal structures of the social space?

11:15–11:45 Laura Giorio & Felix Bengtsson: Swedish Educational Research: Definitions, References and Citation.

12:00–13:15 Lunch

13:15–13:45 Philippa Brunner Heywood: Migrating Teachers: impact on a globalising education system and labour market experiences

13:45–14:15 Mikael Börjesson: The Global Space of International Students and its Regional Decomposition.

14:15–14:45 André Bryntesson: Creating regionalisation through student fees, the case of Sweden.

14:45–15:00 Break

15:00–15:30 Mette Ginnerskov-Dahlberg: Georgia (not) on my mind. Exploring the strategies and lived experiences of Indian medicine students in a small post-Soviet country

15:30–16:00 Pablo Lillo Cea: The world-class ordination: Studying a global field of universities